DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Thank you for choosing Counseling West Seattle for services. The following information is for Eric Mulholland and is provided to help you determine if his services as a therapist match your needs as a client. It contains information about his therapeutic philosophy, education, and fees, as well as your rights as a client. Please read the following and ask any questions that would help you determine whether working with him at Counseling West Seattle would be a good choice for you.

INTRODUCTION

My name is Eric Mulholland and I am a Mental Health Counselor Associate licensed by the State of Washington (MC61303139). I did my undergraduate studies at the University of LaVerne in Southern California where I specialized in educational theatre. In recent years, I completed my MA at the European Graduate School in Saas-Fee, Switzerland. In the years between my undergraduate and graduate studies, I completed training as a licensed massage therapist (LMP) at the Port Townsend School of Massage. In addition, I trained as a facilitator with Partners for Youth Empowerment and led youth programs and trainings for youth workers internationally.

TREATMENT PHILOSOPHY

Thank you for taking time to learn more about my approach to counseling. I've always been curious about people and their stories. Since childhood, I loved listening to people share how they navigate life's challenges and the ways they connect to the world around them. Later in life, I began working internationally with youth and adults which taught me that human suffering is universal. I believe that we need people to help us make meaning from our experiences.

The ways in which I work with clients depends on the person and their situation. My primary approach is Person-Centered, to be present with the client in a safe space where deep listening happens, so that what wants to be expressed can be shared in a warm and judgement free environment. Together, we may decide to use approaches from my training in Expressive Arts Therapy (EXA), a solution-focused therapy, where clients use art materials to explore difficulty. The object is to use the art-making process as a tool to locate inner resources within oneself for meeting challenges, making change, and awakening possibility. I also use Somatic Embodiment and Self-regulation techniques, and Mindfulness based practices to foster a body-centered awareness for cultivating balance and peace of mind.

My overall aim is to provide a therapeutic environment that is transparent, supportive, and compassionate; focusing on my clients, their goals, and where they are at during each session.

APPOINTMENTS AND FEES

Therapy sessions are scheduled as follows: Intakes of 60-75 minutes at $200.00 and ongoing Regular Sessions of 50-60 minutes at $175.00. Services provided involving legal circumstances or in accordance with court orders are charged at $200 per hour. I will notify you if I have to cancel or change appointments with 24 hours' notice unless in the case of an emergency. If you are unable to keep your appointment for any reason, please contact Eric Mulholland at 425-736-6764. You must give at least 24 hours' advance notice, or you will be charged the full amount. Please be aware that insurance companies do not reimburse for missed sessions. Payment is due at the time of service.

Occasionally I find it necessary to increase my fee. If this occurs during your treatment, you will be given one month's notice prior to the increase. If you have any question regarding payments, I encourage you to ask.

INSURANCE INFO

It is the member's responsibility to discover benefits prior to services. The contact number and/or website address are on the back side of your insurance card. Every insurance plan is unique, therefore when you contact member services you will want to ask specifically for outpatient mental health benefits, in network and/or out of network, number of visits allowed, annual deductible, and co-payment and/or co-insurance amounts, if applicable. On the second visit, if the client does not have the insurance information, including the co-payment or deductible amount, a retainer fee of $150 will be collected. This amount will be used for co-payment or deductible or will be refunded to the client.

CONFIDENTIALITY

I treat information exchanged between us as confidential. There are certain circumstances, however, under which information may be released. I may release such information when you provide me with a written RELEASE OF INFORMATION. I may also release information to a health care provider or insurance company who is providing treatment to you if that person needs to know that information. Under law, however, I am also required to release confidential information without your consent in special cases such as: suspected child or elder abuse; potential suicidal behavior by you; or threats of harm to another person. In addition, in certain select circumstances, my records may be subject to subpoena and I may be required to release information without your consent.

CLIENT RECORDS

I do keep brief, written records of your treatment and the services that I provide to you. Under law, you may ask me to see and copy that record. You may ask me to correct the record, I will not disclose your records to others unless you direct me to do so or unless the law authorizes or compels me to do so. If you request records or written information to be released there will be a fee of $28.00 for paperwork and time spent.

YOUR LEGAL PROTECTION

You have the right both to receive appropriate care and treatment, and to refuse any proposed treatment. The State of Washington has asked all therapists to convey the following information to their clients: "Counselors practicing counseling for a fee must be registered or licensed with the department of licensing for the protection of public health and safety. Registration of an individual with the department does not include recognition of any practice standards, nor necessarily implies the effectiveness of any treatment."

CRISES

If you or your child is having a mental health crisis that DOES NOT REPRESENT A SERIOUS THREAT TO YOU OR YOUR CHILD'S PERSONAL SAFETY OR THE SAFETY OF OTHERS, leave a message and I'll call back as soon as possible. I check my voice mail frequently. If unable to reach me in person during a crisis, a call may be made to the Crisis Clinic's 24-hour hot line at 206-461-3222 or you may choose to go to the emergency room of a local hospital if appropriate. For any mental health crisis that DOES REPRESENT A SERIOUS THREAT TO YOU OR YOUR CHILD'S PERSONAL SAFETY OR THE SAFETY OF OTHERS CALL 911
