DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Thank you for choosing Counseling West Seattle for services. The following disclosure is for Larisa Wendfeldt and is provided to help you determine if her service as a therapist match your needs as a client. It contains information about therapeutic philosophy, education, fees and your rights as a client. Please read the following and ask any questions that would help you determine whether working with her would be a good choice for you.

INTRODUCTION

My name is Larisa Wendfeldt and I am a Marriage and Family Therapist licensed by the State of Washington (LF60869534). I received my BA in Anthropology from the University of Washington in 2008 and my MA in Psychology with a specialization in Couple and Family Therapy from the Antioch University Seattle in 2016. I have worked with youth and families in several capacities (teaching abroad, Camp coordination, Peace Corps, and therapy) since 2004.

TREATMENT PHILOSOPHY

Understanding someone's journey is an honor and a privilege. I have worked and volunteered in many different capacities and different areas of the world and have always found myself drawn to learning more about people's stories—their joys and sorrows, the way they experience the world, and how they connect to others around them. Allowing space for processing experiences and self-exploration is an important part of the therapeutic process. I have a warm, accepting, playful presence and believe that sometimes people just need a caring smile and someone to really see them where they are. I work with clients of all ages and adjust my approach to therapy based on both the client's age as well as their needs. I have an integrative approach to therapy; the modality used depends on the needs of the client in the moment. Throughout therapy, I believe the most important thing is to be present with the client where they are in the moment and to provide unconditional positive regard for them and their experience. Assisting clients to solve their own problems and explore their own thoughts, opinions, and decisions is an essential part of the therapeutic process. In addition to a Person-Centered approach, I use Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Motivational Interviewing, Solution-Focused Therapy, Strategic Therapy, Mindfulness, Relational models, an internalized oppression model, and playfulness and humor.

APPOINTMENTS AND FEES

Therapy sessions are billed as follows: Intakes of 60-75 minutes at $200.00 and ongoing Regular Sessions of 50-60 minute at $175.00. Services provided involving legal circumstances or in accordance with court orders are charged at $200 hour. I will notify you if I must cancel or change appointments with 24-hours' notice unless it's an emergency. If you are unable to keep your appointment for any reason, please contact Larisa Wendfeldt at 425-256-3545, you must give at least 24 hours advance notice, or you will be charged the full amount. Please be aware that insurance companies do not reimburse for missed sessions. Payment is due at the time of service.

Occasionally I find it necessary to increase my fee. If this occurs during the client's treatment, he/she will be given a one-month notice prior to the increase. If the client has any question regarding payments, I encourage him/her to ask.

INSURANCE INFO

It is the member's responsibility to discover benefits prior to services. The contact number and/or website address are on the back side of your insurance card. Every insurance plan is unique, therefore when you contact member services you will want to ask specifically for outpatient mental health benefits, in network and/or out of network, number of visits allowed, annual deductible, and co-payment and/or co-insurance amounts, if applicable. On the second visit, if the client does not have the insurance information including the co-payment or deductible amount, a retainer fee of $175 will be collected. This amount will be used for co-payment or deductible or will be refunded to the client.

CONFIDENTIALITY

I treat information exchanged between us as confidential. There are certain circumstances; however, under which information may be released. I may release such information when you provide me with a written RELEASE OF INFORMATION. I may also release information to a health care provider or insurance company who is providing treatment to you if that person needs to know that information. Under law, however, I am also required to release confidential information without your consent in special cases such as: suspected child or elder abuse; potential suicidal behavior by you; or threats of harm to another person. In addition, in certain select circumstances, my records are subject to subpoena and I may be required to release information without your consent.

CLIENT RECORD

I do keep brief, written records of your treatment and the services that I provide to you. Under law, you may ask me to see and copy that record. You may ask me to correct the record, I will not disclose your records to others unless you direct me to do so or unless the law authorizes or compels me to do so. If you request records or written information to be released there will be a fee of $50.00 for paperwork and time spent.

YOUR LEGAL PROTECTION

You have the right both to receive appropriate care and treatment, and to refuse any proposed treatment. The State of Washington has asked all therapists to convey the following information to their clients: "Counselors practicing counseling for a fee must be registered or licensed with the department of licensing for the protection of public health and safety. Registration of an individual with the department does not include recognition of any practice standards, nor necessarily implies the effectiveness of any treatment."

CRISES

If you or your child is having a mental health crisis that DOES NOT REPRESENT A SERIOUS THREAT TO YOU OR YOUR CHILD'S PERSONAL SAFETY OR THE SAFETY OF OTHERS, leave a message and I'll call back as soon as possible. I check my voice mail frequently. If unable to reach me in person during a crisis, a call may be made to the Crisis Clinic's 24-hour hot line at 206-461-3222 or you may choose to go to the emergency room of a local hospital if appropriate. For any mental health crisis that DOES REPRESENT A SERIOUS THREAT TO YOU OR YOUR CHILD'S PERSONAL SAFETY OR THE SAFETY OF OTHERS call 911.
